

Cattle trailer accident, delays evening rush traffic

Posted: Feb 13, 2009 10:44 PM EST

Updated: Feb 13, 2009 10:44 PM EST

SHREVEPORT, LA. (KSLA) - Evening rush hour commuters ended up delayed Friday while crews worked to clear both sides of Interstate 20 after an afternoon accident.

The accident happened in Lincoln Parish.

According to police, one semi-tractor-trailer full of cattle crash created a chain reaction of crashes. The cattle trailer overturned, sending cattle out in traffic.

Some of the cattle ended up getting hit by other cars, while others made a run for it.

Also on eastbound Interstate 20 three more tractor-trailers were involved in a crash. Police are saying that crash coincides with the first tractor-trailer accident. that crash.

Fortunately, of both accidents, there were no reports of any major injuries. The driver of the cattle tractor-trailer that initiated the multi-trailer accident was cited for careless operation.

KSLA News 12
Headlines

More >>

Shreveport Police Officer involved in early morning accident

Warning about a Telephone Scam

States face competing priorities for stimulus cash

GM could be facing Chapter 11 Bankruptcy

House passes stimulus

Lo Walker gets second term as Bossier City Mayor

Shreveport 2-year-old trapped in car

UAW and Big Three negotiations take a turn

Plane that crashed in NY dropped 800 feet in 5 seconds

AR man charged with capital murder seeks mental health expert