An 18-year-old Statham man was killed Monday in a one-car wreck in Oconee County.

Bruce J. Cox II was killed at about 11:50 p.m. Monday, according to the Athens post of the Georgia State Patrol. The patrol said Cox was driving a 1998 Chevrolet Camaro west on Georgia Highway 53 when the car left the road and drove into a ditch before returning to the road and overturning near the highway's intersection with Lane Creek Road.

Troopers said Cox was driving too fast for conditions at the time of the wreck and noted that section of roadway was being resurfaced at the time and loose material may have been in the road. The road was paved the next day, according to the patrol.
